

CONTESTANTS GATHERING MANY THOUSAND VOTES

BATTLE OF BALLOTS ON IN EARNEST

New Chaperone Entrant Moves Up To Second Place

The snap count in the California-Yosemite Contest vote made last night revealed but few changes in the relative positions of the candidates, although there was a fairly good vote polled.

Mrs. W. C. Moore moves up to second place in the Chaperone vote, placing Mrs. Beggs to third. Mrs. Daniels polled over a thousand votes, but not quite enough to change her position in the line.

Trip Contestants.

Miss Pangelinan still leads the trip contestants in District 1. She has a fairly good lead but there is no telling what the week-end vote will be or how it will affect those who look safe in this list.

Miss McCabe made a substantial move, making her seem quite safe in second place. It will be interesting to see how she stands in the count to be issued on Monday.

Miss Johnson moved up exactly 2000 and Miss Macy brought her total well on the way to the 40,000 mark.

The frequency of the counts does not give the contestants on the other islands a chance to get their votes in on every count that is made. The next count, however, will probably show some moving about of names in districts 2, 3 and 4.

The following is the result of the last count:

Special Notice.

Subscribers sending in subscriptions to the Bulletin must always mention the names of the contestants they wish to vote for, as all ballots are filled out in full before leaving office. You can hold back the ballots as long as you wish.

Every subscription payment made on or since March 7 entitles the payer to votes. Present receipts and votes will be issued. You vote for two candidates—a trip and a chaperone contestant. An equal number of votes, as given in the standing vote schedule, are issued for each contestant.

Tri-weekly counts are being made on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The results of these counts are published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Ballots intended for these counts should be in the Bulletin office by 4 o'clock of the day the count is made.

How Votes Are Issued.

Each copy of the Bulletin will contain a coupon, which, when properly filled out, will entitle the holder to votes of the number specified. This number will vary from day to day. No advance announcement of the number of votes will be given. Votes will also be issued on paid subscriptions to the Evening and Weekly Bulletin in proportion to the length of time such subscriptions are paid in accordance with the schedule appearing below.

Nominations Not Closed.

There seems to be an impression that nominations are closed forevermore, so far as this contest is concerned. The nominations are not closed, and will not be until the end of the contest. You could, if you wish, nominate a candidate on the last day of the contest.

THE DISTRICTS ARE AS FOLLOWS

District No. 1 includes the City and County of Honolulu.

CLUBS PROTECT NATIONAL PARKS

Director E. T. Parsons Of Sierra Club Active Booster

"Through the work of the Sierra Club of California, the Yosemite National Park was originally set aside and one of its chief activities since has been to protect this great park from all sorts of threatened invasion and destructive intrusions," so stated Mr. E. T. Parsons, a director of the Sierra Club, to a Bulletin representative this morning.

Mr. Parsons is also a member of the "Mazamas" of Portland of the "Mountaineers" of Seattle, and of the American Alpine Club.

"The American Alpine Club," stated Mr. Parsons, "has three qualifications for membership, viz: actual mountaineering exploration, exploration work in the Arctic and Antarctic regions or in high latitudes of noteworthy character and literary work along these lines; or eminence in scientific investigation in the field."

"It is the aim of the American Alpine Club to become a national organization and enroll amongst its members men who have signally achieved in these directions. It publishes from time to time monographs to cover eventually the entire field of mountaineering exploration in North America."

"The Sierra Club has a membership of 1400; the 'Mountaineers' of Seattle a membership of 500, and the 'Mazamas' of Portland a membership of 400. These three Pacific Coast clubs are now rapidly adding to their membership and increasing in significance and power. They were all formed on similar lines and with practically the same purposes as set forth in the constitution of the Sierra Club as follows: All three have from the beginning been free from an interested or entangling alliance or alignments with any special interests of any kind, and have always worked enthusiastically, sanely, and altruistically, for exploring, protecting and making available to the general public the magnificent scenic regions in the mountain ranges of the Pacific Coast."

"To this end they have published bulletins and maps based on the work of their members; and through enlightening the interest and attention of prominent writers, they have published to the world, accurate knowledge of unquestioned authenticity regarding the mountain regions they have particularly explored."

"The Mazamas" of Portland was particularly responsible for the creation of the Crater Lake National Park and for the splendid investigation of the mountain ranges of the State with respect to the natural sciences which have been recorded and published to the world in the Mazama Bulletin. This club was largely instrumental also in the creation of the Mt. Rainier National Park; and, its closely affiliated neighbor, the "Mountaineers" of Seattle, was responsible for the creation of the great Olympic National Monument, embracing over 600,000 acres. These two clubs are prominent in advocating measures for the care of those great national properties and making them known and available to the world."

"The work of the three clubs has practically only begun. As they grow in numbers and strength, their efforts will increase in importance and value, along the lines of the work accomplished by the great European Mountain Clubs, whose number hundreds of thousands in their membership and whose publications have undoubtedly contributed largely to the wave of interest in nature and sight-seeing travel, which annually takes to Europe an expenditure of $550,000,000, of which the share of Little Switzerland has been conservatively estimated to be $200,000,000 annually."

"No doubt a great proportion of this enormous expenditure for travel comes from the United States and were the greater hospitality and unsophisticated beauty of the natural scenery of the Alpine regions of the Pacific Coast as well known, undoubtedly a great proportion of this money would be directed to travel in that direction, instead of flowing abroad in the steady stream it now does."

"The foregoing figures are on the authority of Mr. J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic Association, who is today, in conjunction with Mr. R. U. Johnson, editor of the Century Magazine, The Appalachian Mountain Club of Boston and similar organizations, leading the great movement, now in its incipency, for conserving and opening to the world and posterity the magnificent natural scenic beauty of America."

"These gentlemen have been in the forefront of the fight to preserve Niagara Falls from the inordinate attacks of selfish individual interests of Buffalo, and the neighborhood of the Falls. This fight is still going on, for these selfish interests are persistent. Mr. McFarland has shown that approximately $20,000,000 are spent annually by visitors to Niagara Falls, which, capitalized at 5-per cent, would make Niagara Falls alone worth to the nation $400,000,000."

"Our Pacific Coast clubs are not entirely local in their activities nor are they working selfishly for their own locality; but are taking an interest in all national progress and are in line with all betterment work and support their representatives and senators, by giving publicity to the furtherance of any great national utilization movement in line with their own work, and back up Mr. Johnson and Mr. McFarland in every way they can."

"In the accomplishment of any good and unselfish movement, organization is the effective weapon. The Trail and Travel Club of Hawaii can see from the foregoing that there is a great opportunity for unselfish and effective work that shall result in bettering living conditions in these islands by conserving and making useable the magnificent natural scenery of trail, valley and mountain, and, additionally so, if intelligent co-operation with the great organizations of the nation and getting their aid when necessary for the furtherance of the more immediate and particular purposes of the Trail and Travel Club."

"The leading traffic official of possibly the greatest transportation system in the States, has thoroughly approved of these organizations and has stated emphatically that their publications, meager and few though they be at present, reach people throughout the world in a way that his transportation system, with all its millions could not duplicate. He has invited their criticism, knowing that the same would be honest, based on actual causes, and without the suspicion of enmity or vindictiveness, and has supported their publications by advertising in the columns of same."

There will be no exchange of the Kapapa lands according to the latest views of the Governor on that subject. Senator Fairchild of the Mahee Sugar Company came to the city for the express purpose of closing a deal with the Governor, making an offer of some rice lands on the outskirts of the city for a slab of the Kapapa lands but the chief executive soon established the fact that there was nothing doing in the line of an exchange.

NEWS NOTES FROM KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS

A track team composed of boys under eighteen years of age, and who did not take part in the big meet held on the 19th of March, will compete against the teams of the Boys' Clubs at the Boys' Field on April 16. There are many promising runners among the younger boys of the schools, who did not take part in the big meet, and there are enough boys to make up a strong team. The boys are turning out daily now, for they have only about a week to practise in. Another team made up of boys under sixteen will also enter against the junior teams of the different clubs in town, on the same date.

The baseball squad is out every evening now practising. Capt. McGowan is having the boys practise batting a great deal at present. There are three pitchers out daily trying for the team. Kalai and Milihaa are considered the best pitchers on the squad. Joe Kahi and J. Lujan are trying for backstop. J. Kahi is about the best batter, and it is quite certain that he will be the man behind the bat. E. Noah is holding down short and is improving rapidly in picking up grounders.

The Kamehameha cadets are busy at present getting ready for their yearly inspection, which will take place the early part of May. The inspector will be appointed by the War Department at Washington. Last year the cadets were placed in Class A among the military schools, and an attempt will be made by them again this year to stay in that class.

Marshall Darrach will recite "The Merchant of Venice" at the Bishop Memorial Chapel, Saturday evening, April 9, at 7:45. The students are taking great interest in the recital, and there is sure to be a big turnout. A special admission fee will be charged to the students.

The interscholastic baseball series will start in about three weeks from now. There will be four teams in the league—High School, Kame, Oahu College and St. Louis College.

The school officers are to be given a dinner Sunday evening by the faculty. This will be the only one given this year. The schools' officers number twenty-one.

The battalion officers are arranging to have a dance given in the latter part of this month.

There will be a dress parade by the cadet battalion on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A fund of $1,000,000 is to be raised to convert the 900,000 churchless residents in Philadelphia. This puts the cost of a soul at $1.10 apiece—in Philadelphia.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Does it not occur to you that perhaps Philadelphia souls require less arduous and expensive labor on them, say, in Birmingham?

Now let the actors and actresses in "Chantecler" take care lest they be taken down with the pip or the roup.
